

COOK COUNTY JUVENILE COURT CLINIC

Cook County Juvenile Court

2245 West Ogden Avenue – Fifth Floor

Chicago, IL 60612

Cook County Juvenile Court Clinic Administration Team Contact Information

Barbara A. Kahn, J.D. is the Director of the Cook County Juvenile Court Clinic. Ms. Kahn also serves as the Director of Education and Training for the Clinic and was a member of the research team that developed the model on which the Clinic is based. She can be reached at bkahn@law.northwestern.edu

Lynn Bushell, M.S.W. is the Resource and Program Evaluation Supervisor. Ms. Bushell oversees the work of resource specialists who respond to requests for community-based program information from the Juvenile Justice division of the Court. In addition, Ms. Bushell oversees all data collection, management and analysis for the Clinic. She can be reached at lbushell@law.northwestern.edu

Jennifer Clark, Psy.D. is the Clinical Director- Child Protection Division. She conducts evaluations used in child protection matters and oversees the work of the Child Protection Clinical Coordinators and psychologists responding to court ordered request for clinical information from Child Protection Judges. She can be reached at jclark5@law.northwestern.edu

Antoinette Kavanaugh, Ph.D. is the Clinical Director- Juvenile Justice Division. She conducts evaluations used in juvenile justice matters and oversees the work of the Juvenile Justice Clinical Coordinators and psychologists responding to court ordered request for clinical information from Juvenile Justice Judges. She can be reached at a-kavanaugh@law.northwestern.edu